the Bar, So They Want Gaynor to Pay Up.

Mayor Gaynor's offer to pay $10 out of his own pocket for proof that drinks are sold in New York barrooms Sunday has been taken up by the Men's Club of Grace Presbyterian Church, Stuyresent and Jefferson avenues, Brooklyn. The Mayor made the offer last Wedneeday in a letter to the Rev. S. Edward Young of the Bedford Presbyterian Church.

At a meeting last night in Graco Presbyterian Church, the Men's Club, through its Vice-President, J. E. Stevenson, turned in what it called "an unvarnished report" of what the committee asserts it found out on Sunday, May 7, in a tour of the Fifth Assembly District. Only salooms and moving picture shows were visited.

The report of the committee is to be to-day to Mayor Gaynor. It contains the names of the members of the ittee, together with a full list of all the places visited and details of what was observed in each. Copies of the report are to be sent to the District Attorney of Kings County, to the Grand Jury there and to the State Commissigner of Excise.

After the report had been read and considered last night, Supt. McClintock of the Society for the Prevention of Crime got up in the church and said:

Hotel Law le Clear.

The law as to hotels is very clear, said Supt. McClintock, it providing that every dining room must have at least seating at least twenty guests at table. It is a violation of law, said Mr. Mclintook, for a "hotel" keeper to offer a "rubber sandwich" or any other food to person unless the food is ordered.
